Professor Dame Betty Kershaw

WELCOME

On behalf of the Governors and staff, I am very pleased to welcome all our guests, parents and prizewinners. We thank you for coming to this evening of celebration and we hope that you enjoy the occasion.

It is our pleasure to extend a very warm welcome to our guest speaker, Professor Dame Betty Kershaw.

Mr G S Richards - Headteacher

PROFESSOR DAME BETTY KERSHAW

Dame Betty Kershaw is Emeritus Dean at the School of Nursing and Midwifery, University of Sheffield. She retired three years ago. She was previously Head of the Manchester College of Midwifery and Nursing Director of Nursing Education at Stockport, Tameside and Glossop College of Nursing. Dame Betty is now Visiting Professor at Manchester Metropolitan University and Birmingham City University. She is particularly interested in Post Basic Nursing Education and student issues.

Dame Betty received an honorary doctorate from Manchester University in 1995 in recognition of her contribution to nursing education. She was created Dame Commander of the Order of the British Empire in 1998 for services to nursing education. Her recent international consultancy work includes projects in Colombia and China on the modernization agenda for nursing. She has ongoing commitments to the Department of Health Leadership Project including advising on how the programme develops black nurses for leadership positions.

Dame Betty is a Fellow of the Royal College of Nursing and one of its former presidents. She was also St John Ambulance's chief nursing and social care officer. She is the RCN Education adviser and a Non-executive Director of Manchester Mental Health and Social Care Trust, and she lives in Manchester.

SCHOOL SONG

Let us praise our benefactor,
Good John Beddoes of Presteigne,
Who took thought for future ages,
Ere he left this mortal scene,
From the fleece he made his fortune,
To God's sheep he left his store;
Church and Children, School and Curfew
Bear him witness evermore.

*Hail John Beddoes, Hail our Founder
May they flourish, School and Bell*

From the Church rings out the curfew;
In the school he speaks to youth;
"Virtue narrows without Learning,
Learning withers without Truth."
Wisdom, Knowledge, Virtue, Learning,
Needs must flourish side by side;
And the memory of our Founder
In Presteigne shall ever bide.

*Hail John Beddoes, Hail our Founder
May they flourish, School and Bell*
